Described Him

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 1.—Gen. Francisco Murguía, the rebel leader, was executed by a firing squad at 9 o'clock this morning at Tepic, Durango, after a brief court-martial last night. It was announced today from the presidential office, Murguía, the announcement said, met death calmly.

General Murguía was the arch enemy of President Obregon for many years and one of the men who took part in the flight that brought death to former President Carranza. With the little band of followers who were the remnant of his most recent rebel army, General Murguía was surrounded yesterday afternoon near Durango City and captured.

Recently he was described by President Obregon as "not a soldier, but a fugitive from justice."

For a long while General Murguía was credited with brewing a revolution. Two months ago he left his hiding place across the Rio Grande and came back into Mexico at the head of a rebel band said to number 800 men. Three weeks ago his forces were decisively defeated in a clash with troops under General Escobar at Guadalupe, in the state of Durango. Since then he has carefully avoided meeting federal troops. From time to time there were reports that he was trying to unite his rebels with those of Juan Carrasco in the state of Sinaloa and the men under Carlos Greene in Tamaulipas, but nothing ever came of these moves.

The rebellious activities of General Murguía never aroused popular sympathy except in the northern regions where, as the governor of Coahuila under Carranza, he cultivated many adherents.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 1.—Gen. Francisco Murguía was executed by a firing squad at 9 o'clock this morning, according to a telegram from Mexico City, received at the customs house in Juarez.

The execution took place at Tepic, Durango, where General Murguía, rebel leader, was captured last night. Paulino M. Guerrero, collector of customs in Juarez, received the telegram and announced that it was an official message, but declined to reveal its signature, waiting for the news to go through military channels.

"The execution took place under military rules and the report is correct," it was announced at the Mexican consulate in El Paso.

Shoots at Halloween Jokers.
VIRALIA, Cal., Nov. 1.—Frank Schlemmer, 14, was in a critical condition today and Otto Lohndorf is under arrest as a result of a Halloween prank. Lohndorf is alleged to have fired on several small boys early today when he caught them attempting to roll a wagon away from his back yard. He told the police the shotgun was loaded with salt but physicians today picked up bird-shot from the body of the boy.

Business Failures Decrease.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Business failures through the country decreased in October compared to the same month last year, but increased over September, Bradstreet says today. Last month there were 1,609 failures against 1,468 in September. The total of October, 1922, was 236,941,884, an increase of 15.7 per cent over September. The far western states supplied the biggest proportions.
